Bike circuit

Europe Monument

Description

Burg-Reuland is located near the meeting point of three borders (Belgium, Germany, and Luxemburg). This charming village is on the path of the Stonemen Arduenna, a 176 kilometre Mountain Bike challenge. Enjoy a stopover in the village for a night to discover local food and monuments. Get your starter pack at KUZ and rent a mountain bike at the local tourism office. We invite you to bring out the experienced cyclist in you!

Our essence: Biking, culture and the best landscapes.

Itinerary

Day 1: Far away from the noise of everyday life, accommodation at Kuz offers a creative retreat in the heart of the Ardennes region. Enjoy a self-guided walk through the Castle of Burg-Reuland, of the largest and most beautiful fortresses in the Ardennes, nestled in an exceptional green setting. Take a stroll through the ruins of this 9th century monument. Enjoy a wonderful journey through time and explore this amazing medieval castle, recently renovated.

Day 2: Start the day with breakfast and enjoy a day full of experiences riding a mountain bike through the path of the Stonemen Arduenna. Discover the Our Valley, a true paradise for hikers, bikers and nature enthusiasts, and the 15 km-long sculpture route, starting from Stoubach. Visit the Europe Monument, erected in 1977 in honour of the founding fathers of the European Union and located just outside the village of Ouren, at the confluence of the Ribbach and the Our. The location was deliberately chosen: the region where the borders of Luxembourg, Germany and Belgium come together.

Ready to continue the circuit? We advise you to continue in the direction of Maspelt or Gröfflingen and continue enjoying the journey!

Nature & History: Europe monument

DESCRIPTION

Discover the Our Valley, a true paradise for hikers and nature enthusiasts. Walk the 15 km-long sculpture route, starting from Stoubach. With the help of a guide, complete the route at the Europe Monument, erected in 1977 in honour of the founding fathers of the European Union and located just outside the village of Ouren, at the confluence of the Ribbach and the Our. The location was deliberately chosen: the region where the borders of Luxembourg, Germany and Belgium come together. Three municipalities, Heinerscheid in Luxembourg, Arzfeld in Germany and Burg-Reuland in Belgium, purchased the site for the monument composed of five boulders from five European countries.
